

Jean-Baptiste Bessier

Title	Comte Richard de Vauxville, officer of the Cadets of the Royal Guard, in blue coat...
Description	JEAN-BAPTISTE BESSIER (FRANCE, 1782-1850) Comte Richard de Vauxville, officer of the Cadets of the Royal Guard, in blue coat with red collar with silver lace, epaulettes and sashettes, blue cross-shaped with French Royal arms in gold, before the background signed and dated 'J. Bessier. 1837' (mid right) on paper walls. rectangular, Engr. 2 1/2 x 3 1/2 in. (74 x 90 mm.), stamped gilt-metal frame with applied name plate (at 'Vauxville'), pierced sashettes and tassel surmount
Medium	enamel
Year of Work	1837
Size (in.)	height 2.5 in.; width 3 in.; height 64 cm.; width 76.2 cm.
Size (cm.)	height 64 cm.; width 76.2 cm.
Date of	October's London Treasury, June 18, 2008 (Lot 20000)
Estimate	£2,000 - £3,000 (GBP)
Sold For	£2,300 (GBP) (premium)
Provenance	£24,000 (GBP)
Literature	Edward Hamrick Collection, Paris, part I sold Leo Schuch's Konstruktivismus, Mainz, 11 April 1924, lot 71 L. B. Sussman, The Structure in Europe, 1910, 1904, 1, p. 107 (described as 'gold')